Mr. Rynning recognized him and detained him until an officer arrived, and he was arrested. The prisoner refused to give his name until arraigned before United States Commissioner Shields this morning. He claimed to have purchased the bogus coin at a place on Baxter street. The authorities are of the opinion that Fullen is one of a gang who have passed considerable counterfeit coin in the upper part of the city. When questioned closely as to the place he purchased the coin he contradicted himself.

Arthur Nicolal Arrested for Alleged Embezziement. Arthur Nicolai was held for examination in the Tombs Court this morning on the charge of embezzlement.

The complainant is George A Weaver of the New Jersey Land Improvement Company, of 287 Broadway. Nicolai has Company, of 287 Broadway. Nicolai has been employed by the Company for two years as agent, and was intrusted with the handling of a great deal of money. It is alleged that a partial examination of his accounts showed him to have embezzled $1,000. He is charged with collecting payments for land in Jersey City and falling to account for the same. It is thought that a thorough investigation may show a still larger shortage in Nicolai's accounts. He was arrested by Policeman English, of the Tombs squad, at his home. 217 East Eighty-sixth street.

"I got some bonds together and took them to him at the Hotel Brunswick a few days later for his inspection.
"On that occasion I told him of some brewery property and some lands in Alabama owned by a syndicate and a railroad company.

Vice-President Stevenson's son, Mr. L.
G. Stevenson, and bride were passengers on the French line steamship La Bretagne, which sailed for Havre to-day.

Among others on board were Mr. Eugene Germain, United States Consul to Zurich, and family; Mr. Roger Martin, French Commissioner to the World's Fair, and Marquis de Trazsenies et d'itre.

The steamship Saale, North German Lloyd line, and the Umbria Cunard line.

The prospective bride denounced the arrest in emphatic terms, but her protests availed her nothing.

Williams had represented himself to her to be a wealthy real-estate speculator, and on several occasions had exhibited bonds represented to be worth at par value 435,000.

DR. A. T. SANDEN—Dear Sir: For 18 years I was troubled with a weak back, and was so had that I applied for a pension, which was granted me. In my business, which is boating, it is necessary to do a great deal of lifting, which greatly distressed me. The very day I commenced with the Belt the pain had left me, and I have not been troubled since. I recommend it to all who miffer as I did. ALVINE R. AINSWORTH, 22 South st., N. Y. City.

struck on a reef in Little Heil Gate about it o'clock yesterday forence and went aground on the sunken meadows off Woolsey's Point, Astoria.

It was reported that she damaged her bottom, but just what the extent of her lotten, but just what the extent of her lotten, but just what the extent of her injuries were could not be ascertained. The Portsmouth is now used as a training ship for apprentices, and she she left the Brooklyn Navy-Yard at 3 o'clock yesteriay morning in tow of the Ug Traiford for a cruise in the Sound. A number of tugs went to the assistance of the Portsmouth after she grounded, but they could not pull her off.

It was decided to wait until high water, and at 3.30 o'clock the old man-of-war floated off and proceeded up the Sound.

She probably anchored in Cow Bay last night, and the fact that she proceeded eastward through the Sound as to prevent her from making the cruise as originally planned.
